Section 2 - Agreement For Holiday Music Channel Services

Thank you for choosing CustomChannels.net, LLC (“CCLLC”) for custom Holiday Music Channel services. This letter will outline the terms and conditions of the Agreement between Client and CCLLC for the undertaking of this service.

1) Definitions

As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

- (a) “Channel” shall mean one or more customized streaming Internet radio channels webcast over the Internet created for Client by CCLLC. The number and type of channels shall be listed in the Specifications.
- (b) “Web Site” shall mean the Internet computer service currently registered with Internic that is transmitted via a URL over the Internet by means of a personal computer or other device capable of receiving Internet transmissions.
- (c) “Webcast” shall mean the act of transmitting or causing to be transmitted a musical work or other audio over the Internet through streaming technologies.
- (d) “Webcast Licenses” shall mean the standard webcast licenses issued in the United States by ASCAP, BMI, SESAC and the RIAA pursuant to United States Copyright Law as amended by the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 (“DMCA”). These licenses allow the webcast of all the works in the licensor’s catalog subject to the limitations set forth in the DMCA.
- (e) “Specifications” shall be set forth in Section 1 Specifications, and include descriptive information about the channel, and other material submitted by Client such as playlists.
- (f) “Terms and Fees” shall be set forth in Section 1 Specifications part “B. Agreement Term and Fees.”

2) Development and Webcast

CCLLC shall create a Channel for Webcast based on the Specifications provided by Client. The Channel shall be first Webcast not sooner than the Webcast Start Date outlined in the Specifications provided that CCLLC has received from client all playlists, audio and visual production elements and other necessary client-provided material at least 7 days prior to the Webcast Start Date.

3) Format Exclusivity

CCLLC shall not provide similar or competing services for any other radio station of the same format as the Client within the Market (as defined by the Arbitron Metro) without the prior written consent of the Client. Unless otherwise outlined in the Specifications, CCLLC shall retain the right to provide similar services to other radio stations in the Market, provided that the other stations’ formats do not compete directly with the Client.

4) Testing and Acceptance Procedure

CCLLC will thoroughly test the Channel prior to the first webcast and all updates. After CCLLC sends Client an email, fax, or otherwise notifies client in writing that the Channel is being first webcast or an update has been made, Client shall have a period of 48 business week hours (“Acceptance Period”) within which to test the Channel and notify CCLLC in writing of its acceptance or rejection. If Client does not give notice of rejection within the Acceptance period, the Channel will be deemed accepted.

5) Correction

If Client requests that CCLLC correct the Channel, CCLLC shall within 48 hours submit a revised Channel, and Client shall have an additional 48 hour Acceptance Period to accept it or request further changes and repeat the procedures set forth in Section 4 and Section 5.

6) Ownership

Title to all intellectual property rights outlined in the Specifications, or other material submitted to CCLLC by Client in the development of the Channel, including but not limited to copyrights, trademarks, playlists, logos, graphic designs and trade secrets shall remain with Client. Upon termination of the agreement, CCLLC shall not be obligated to return materials submitted by Client in the Specifications or otherwise, but CCLLC shall be obligated to maintain the confidentiality of such. Title to all intellectual property rights in work product created by CCLLC in the development of the Channel, including, but not limited to playlists, images, program files, player designs, graphic user interface, source code, object code, and production processes shall remain with CCLLC.

7) License to Specifications and Other Client Content

For purposes of CCLLC's fulfillment of its obligations hereunder, Client grants to CCLLC a non-exclusive, worldwide license to reproduce and modify the Specifications, the Channel, and any other content submitted to CCLLC by Client in the process of developing the Channel, and to develop, update and maintain the content of the Channel during the term of this Agreement provided, however, that CCLLC will not modify the content of the Channel without Client's approval.

8) Internet Access

CCLLC shall be responsible for obtaining the media servers from which to webcast the Channel through an Internet Service Provider ("ISP"). The ISP will not be a party to this Agreement nor will it be a third party beneficiary of this Agreement.

9) Transmitting Entity

CCLLC warrants and represents that for purposes with regard to the Channel that is the subject of this Agreement, CCLLC is the transmitting entity of the Channel Webcast. Accordingly, the Channel will be launched from CCLLC's Web Site at http:// www.customchannels.net by way of a "jump page" from the Client's Web Site.

10) Licenses to Third-Party Content

CCLLC is solely responsible for obtaining and complying with all Webcast Licenses, including payment of all royalties or license fees associated therewith for any Channel launched from CCLLC's Web Site, <http://www.customchannels.net>.

11) Channel Access

Client shall provide links to CCLLC's Web Site at www.customchannels.net only from Client Web Site(s) outlined in Specifications. Client shall not permit any "third party" linking from any other Web Site to CCLLC's Web Site or Channel URL without CCLLC's prior written permission.

12) Payment Schedule and Expenses

The fees set forth in Agreement Terms and Fees shall be paid as provided in such the Specifications. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement or in a later writing signed by Client, CCLLC shall bear all expenses arising from the performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

13) Channel Warranty

CCLLC represents and warrants that the Channel (1) will be of high quality and free of defects in material and workmanship in all material respects; and (2) will conform in all respects to the functional and other descriptions contained in the Specifications. In the event of an interruption of a Channel's service, CCLLC shall use its best efforts upon discovery of or notification of the interruption to restore service. CCLLC disclaims all implied warranties.

14) Term and Termination

The Term of this Agreement shall be the dates outlined in the Specifications. Any early termination of this Agreement by Client prior to the end of the Term shall be subject to a cancellation fee as outlined in the Specifications.

15) Confidentiality

CCLLC will maintain confidential all information that is received or made available by CCLLC or any of its agents or employees during the Term. Client agrees to keep as confidential all information provided by CCLLC and to not disclose information or work product of CCLLC to third parties.

16) Billing Statements

We will send you an invoice for the basic fees and services on or about November 1, 2008 or earlier upon Client request. Payment will be due in 30 days from the invoice date. If payment of your bill is not received by CCLLC by the thirtieth (30th) day after the invoice date, CCLLC reserves the right to add a finance charge to your next bill. The amount subject to the finance charge will be that part of the previous balance not paid or otherwise credited before the statement date. The finance charge will be determined by applying a monthly percentage rate of 1.0% (corresponding to an annual percentage rate of 12%) to the unpaid previous balance. You may avoid any additional finance charge by paying the entire current balance on or before the due date. By this arrangement, we do not intend to encourage a credit arrangement or to provide for deferred payments. Rather, the finance charge is assessed to compensate the firm for the cost of carrying past-due accounts.

17) Dispute Resolution

The terms of this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado, and disputes to the validity, enforceability, or interpretation of this Agreement or the intent of the parties shall be submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association in Boulder, Colorado. The parties agree that the prevailing party in the event of such arbitration shall be entitled, in addition to any remedy awarded by the arbitrator, to recover its reasonable attorney fees and the cost and expenses of such arbitration.

Notices

For purposes of all notices and other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder, the addresses of the parties hereto shall be as indicated below. All notices shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by facsimile, the receipt of which is confirmed by return facsimile, or sent by first class registered or certified mail or equivalent, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses set forth below:

18) Designated Person

The parties agree that all materials exchanged between the parties for formal approval shall be communicated between single designated persons, or a single alternate designated person for each party ("Designated Person"). Neither party shall have any obligation to consider for approval or respond to materials submitted other than through the Designated Persons. Each party shall have the right to change its Designated Persons from time to time and to so notify the other in writing of such change.

19) Entire Agreement

This Agreement, including the attached Section 1 Specifications which are incorporated herein by reference as though fully set out, contains the entire understanding and agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein, supersedes all prior oral or written understandings and agreements relating thereto except as expressly otherwise provided, and may not be altered, modified or waived in whole or in part, except in writing, signed by duly authorized representatives of the parties.

20) Force Majeure

Neither party shall be held responsible for damages caused by any delay or default due to any contingency beyond its control preventing or interfering with performance hereunder.

21) Severability

If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to any law, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect as if said provision never existed.

22) Waiver and Amendments

No waiver, amendment, or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless consented to by both parties in writing. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any rights, power, or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any such right, power, or remedy.

23) Agency

The parties are separate and independent legal entities. CCLLC is performing services for Client as an independent contractor. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute either CCLLC or Client an agent, representative, partner, joint venturer or employee of the other party for any purpose. Neither party has the authority to bind the other or to incur any liability on behalf of the other, nor to direct the employees of the other. CCLLC is an independent contractor, not an employee of Client. No employment relationship is created by this Agreement. CCLLC shall retain independent professional status throughout this Agreement and shall use his/her own discretion in performing the tasks assigned.

24) Limitation on Liability; Remedies

Neither party shall be liable to the other party for any incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages of any kind or nature, including, without limitation, the breach of this Agreement or any termination of this Agreement, whether such liability is asserted on the basis of contract, tort (including negligence or strict liability), or otherwise, even if either party has warned or been warned of the possibility of any such loss or damage.
